Blessing Surviving Clergy Spouses

“It is with deep gratitude that I accept the monetary gift from the United Methodist Foundation.”

“Thank you for remembering me in such a thoughtful way. Your gift helped me remember my children at Christmas.”

“Your gift and kind words put a smile on my face to know how much someone cares.”

These are just a few of thank you notes we received in January of this year. The notes came in response to Christmas checks mailed to surviving clergy spouses of the annual conference. These funds were made available through thoughtful individuals making a plan to bless others with their financial resources. These endowed funds are managed by the Foundation for the intended purpose of caring for others.

You can establish an endowment or contribute any amount to the fund. If you simply wish to contribute to the fund note this on the memo line and send your gift to Mississippi United Methodist Foundation, P. O. Box 2415, Ridgeland, MS 39158.

We are grateful to partner with donors, who desire to continue to bless others long after they have joined the church triumphant.
